SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that a Wesleyan mission Panchama Night School was started at Doddajjemallayyanapalya near Tumkur by the Wesleyan mission in August 1906 The School has a roll of 34 boys It is taught by two teachers and is held in the W M Day School for boys at the place It is under European Supervision No Government grant is at present paid for the School

There is a W M Panchama Night

School at Tumkur which is in receipt of a monthly grant of Rs 10 As the attendance of this School has of late fallen to a dozen, I consider that it does not deserve a grant of Rs 10 and recommend that the amount may be divided equally between the W M Panchama Night Schools at Tumkur and Doddassimallayyanapalya Rev Mr Tomlinson who is the manager of both these Schools has agreed to the division

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
